

Naperville Woman's Club

art • education • community service

Thank you for your interest in donating to our causes. Together members support the arts, promote education, and are involved in community service.

Naperville Woman's Club was established in 1897 and continues as a philanthropic organization that donates funds to various community needs. Throughout the years, we have played a part in the development of many Naperville institutions, including Nichols Library, Naper School, and Edward Hospital. For a list of our donations, please visit our website.

We have been affiliated with the General Federation of Women's Clubs since 1926.
